GALLERIAMO

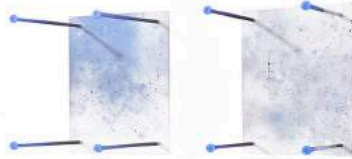

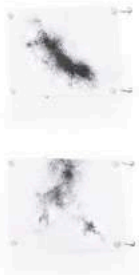

Galleria Ramo is thrilled to share with you the fourth edition of “This is not a curated exhibition.”

The gallery reveals the captivating works of 22 local and international artists, each presenting a series of small-scale works on paper. Much like a constellation, these pieces coalesce to form a visual symphony that invites viewers on a unique journey through diverse artistic realms. Navigating through the exhibition is akin to exploring the cosmos, with each artwork telling its own narrative and contributing to the unveiling of a contemporary artistic universe that mirrors the gallery’s profound research philosophy.

We are also delighted to celebrate the fifth anniversary of Galleria Ramo. This milestone is a testament to the vibrant hub of passion and creativity that this space has become, thanks to the contributions of our valued public.

Galleria Ramo, founded by Simon J V David and Arch. Benedetta De Rosa, specialises in research-based projects with a focus on emerging artists. Originally starting in temporary locations, the gallery officially opened its permanent space in Como, Italy, in late 2018.

Functioning like a close-knit family, Galleria Ramo represents eight local and international artists who are often in dialogue with the space, a converted laundromat, through site-specific approaches. Striving to advance research, Galleria Ramo collaborates with other artists, curators, critics, and collectors to expand the experimental aspects of the artistic practice. The program has developed into three intimate exhibitions that are often experimental, conceptual, and minimal, along with one art residency where the gallery transforms into an artist studio for the summer period and one large group show.

The gallery's commitment lies in supporting and developing the work of its selected group of artists, allowing for freedom of expression and pushing the boundaries of creative practices through its research-centric approach. "Contemporary" or "Now" art holds special currency today as a reflection of society.

The gallery runs like a large Italian family working with eight local and international artists; Hyun Cho, Ilaria Cuccagna, Gianna Dispenza, François Knoetze, Nicolò Masiero Sgrinzatto, Matteo Messori, Alice Paltrinieri and Dave Swensen plus many more exhibited artists.
